

Half-a-Million Wait for May 2, Officials Say

An estimated half-million California anglers are today showing some symptoms—conscious and otherwise—of the annual attack of "Saturday nearest May 1 fever."

And most of them will be waiting a line in their favorite waters when the State's early trout angling season opens one hour before sunrise, Saturday, May 2.

The six-month early season is effective in all waters of the State except those in Tuolumne, Alpine, Calaveras, Amador, El Dorado, Placer, Nevada, Sierra Plumas, Lassen, and Del Norte counties, where trout angling begins May 30. The May 2 opening also applies to Tahoe, Donner, Boca, Almanor, Pillsbury, Bucks, Butte, Earl, and Talawa lakes, and Stone, Big, Freshwater and Clam Beach lagoons in Humboldt County.

Bag limits of 15 trout, salmon, or combination, and other general regulations of last year remain in effect.

In the Colorado River area, where there is no closed season on trout, the bag limit is 10 fish. Lake Merced, San Francisco, has a new bag limit of four fish.

Manager Seeks Players

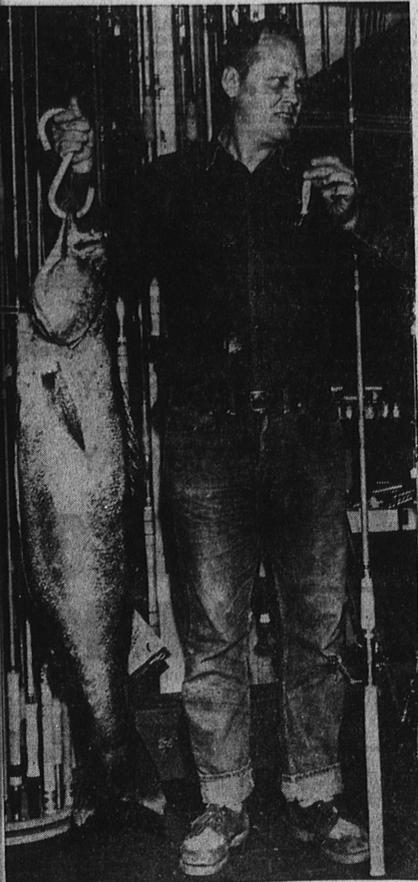

Wanda Hollomon Gaines, who lives at 2213 Cabrillo (No. 9) has lost contact with her ball players.

Mrs. Gaines asked the Herald this week to help her locate a list of players for her so she could get up a team for the girls league this summer.

She is hunting Jeanette Nincic, Barbara Zachary, Pauline Ban, Betty Ziemke, Jo Anne Mo-wald, Monna Henry, Faye Gossett, and Sally Valencia.

Mrs. Gaines asks that the girls contact her at her home after 5 p.m.

ON FRESH WATER TACKLE . . . Paul Smith shows off his 40-pound White Sea Bass he hooked on a fresh water lure on a 10-pound test line.

Smith Battles, Lands 40-Pound White Sea Bass

After a 45-minute battle off the coast of the Coronados Islands Sunday morning, Paul Smith, one of the owners of the Torrance Cycle and Sports Shop, brought to gaff a 40-pound, 1-ounce White Sea Bass which had taken a fresh water lure on a 10 pound test line.

Smith hooked up using an abalone, three hook lure manufactured by the Salm Manufacturing Co., on Border Ave. He was using a spinning reel and jigging when the big fish hit the fresh water "killer."

On board the "Charlotte Too" were other Torrance fishing fans including Frank Startup, Jack Stevens, Wilson Woodburn, Marcela Smith, Roy Smith, Forrest Bartlett, and Herb Curly.

Several Local Sportsmen Get First Marlin

Several Torrance sportsmen got their first marlin last week off the coast of Mexico.

Making the charter air trip to Mazatlan, on the coast northwest of Guadalajara, were Ben and Helen Smith, Dean and Donna Barkdull, John and Rosemary Shidler, Jim and Chris Hall, Fred and Kay Shidler, and Walt and Lois Gilliard.

Ben Smith topped the catches with a marlin which scaled in at 178 pounds. Dean Barkdull ran him a close second with one weighing 169 pounds.

Lois Gilliard led the ladies with a 44 pound catch. The Shidlers also boated one, but didn't weigh it in. It was their first marlin, according to members of the party.

The group left by air on Apr. 9, fished over the weekend, and returned April 13. Accompanying them on the trip was Lou Palmer, a member of the famous Flying Wheels, paraplegic basketball team.

Dick Palmer, former Torrance Herald photographer and a clerk at the A-1 Photo Supply Store, is undergoing special training to qualify him as an Army photographer, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Palmer of 1761 Andreo Ave. were informed this week.

Palmer recently completed his basic training at Ft. Lewis and is currently spending eight weeks in the field and will then be sent to photographer's school. The graduate of Torrance High School in 1950 entered the Army in January of this year. Prior to that he took many of the sports pictures which appeared on the sport pages of the Herald.
